$19,137,243 GC School Budget, May Go Higher

Tentative Document Up $7,892,233, With Construction Included

A tentative budget totaling $19,137,243, an increase of $7,892,233, was adopted by the Granite City board of education for the 1969-70 fiscal year at a meeting last night.

It could be increased further through teacher salary talks. The total includes $4,879,473 for site acquisition and construction of new building plus equipment, as provided in a December 1968 bond issue referendum, as well as salary increases totaling $1,445,129 for teachers, principals and administrators.

The general operating budget is $14,257,770, an increase of $3,012,700. It is subject to a probable upward revision, pending the outcome of negotiations between the teachers' federation and the school district on a new working agreement.

The budget will be on display at the school district's administrative offices until a public hearing set for 7:30 p.m. Sept. 29, when it will be up for final adoption.

Fund Comparison

Included in the budget are $11,495,544 in the educational fund, an increase of $2,153,838; $983,248 in the building fund, up $247,947; $1,203,444 in the bond and interest fund, up $530,074; $266,900 in the transportation fund, up $41,795; $204,285 in the municipal retirement fund, up $43,257; nothing in the working cash fund, down $102,000; and $116,239 in the plant agreement fund, up $77,890.

Based on an estimated assessed valuation of $22,000,000, the estimated tax rate would be $3.4618 per $100 assessed valuation, an increase of 33.28 cents. This compares to actual increased school rates of 42.4 cents in 1968 and 3.7 cents in 1967.

Instruction Increase

The total budget increase for instruction is $1,627,524. It reflects some additional staff made necessary by increased enrollments, as well as salary increases for most certificated personnel and some secretarial personnel.

The administration is recommending an education fund tax levy of $4.796,045, leaving the tax rate at its present level of $2.2684.

Most of the cost of salary increases would be provided by increased state aid as set by the last session of the General Assembly.

The building fund budget of $983,248 provides for completion of Illinois Life Safety Code remodeling work on all buildings, with $42,236 for construction of special education facilities.

It was recommended that the maximum building fund tax rate of 37.5 cents be utilized.

To Let Contracts

Contracts are expected to be let during the school year for site acquisition and construction of new buildings provided by the $4 1/2 million bond sale, which has accrued interest of $13,184.

Buildings planned are a combination junior high and grade school at Route 203 and Maryville road, a grade school on Old Alton road near the Norwood subdivision and a four-classroom addition to Coolidge junior high school.

A balance of $83,298 from a previous bond issue is budgeted for additions or alterations to Grigsby junior high school or Parkway grade school.

The total increase for administration is $25,113, including $16,813 for proposed salary schedules for administrative and secretarial personnel.

Other Salary Adjustments
Salary adjustments also were mostly responsible for increases of $18,659 in the health account, $56,794 for operation and $11,019 in the maintenance account.

An increase of $157,342 in the fixed charges account provides

Bi-State to Seek $1.6 Million for Illinois Buses

Application for a federal grant of $1.6 million to buy 66 new air-conditioned buses for use in the Illinois sector of the Bi-State Transit System was authorized Tuesday afternoon by the Bi-State Development Agency.

Robert S. Knapp, chairman of the Bi-State Agency board, said the new buses are scheduled only for Illinois because $400,000 provided by the Illinois state legislature, can be used only for the benefit of Illinois residents. Missouri legislators failed to set aside funds for the agency.

The new buses, on which delivery is expected by next July, will replace the present fleet used in the Illinois area, keeping the Illinois fleet at about 75, according to Col. R. E. Smyser, executive director of the agency.

The application will be filed with the U. S. Housing and Urban Development Department.

The new buses for the Illinois area are included in an updated transit development program approved by the commissioners Tuesday.

The report extends transit plans through 1975 instead of 1971, calling for $2.4 million more to bring total cost to about $38 million.

Bi-State commissioners moved Tuesday to send the report to the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council for endorsement.

570 Buses Listed
The report calls for 570 air-conditioned buses at a cost of $20.5 million; three garages in Missouri and one in Illinois.

PICKETING BY STUDENTS yesterday at Frohardt school, where there is concern among youngsters over the possibility of June 1970 classes due to the late start of the fall term in Granite City. High school and Coolidge junior high pupils took part, noting that they might lose opportunities for summer jobs.

Builder Pacts OK'd; Jobs Resume

Work on building projects tied up by the three-week strike of ironworkers and cement finishers is being resumed throughout Madison county and the rest of a 16-county southern Illinois area following acceptance of new contract agreements by both construction unions.

Paving work on Federal Aid Route 131 (the Great River Road) has been resumed on full schedule, although a limited amount of work was allowed during the strike, it was reported by highway officials this morning.

Other major area projects that had been affected by the strike include the $11 million addition to St. Elizabeth Hospital and completion of the Granite City stormwater drainage system.

Approve Contract Offers
The ironworkers, in a meeting Monday night, voted by a 5-0 margin to accept the new agreement calling for $2.85 per hour in wage increases over a three-year period.

Members of Cement Finishers Union Local 90 voted in a meeting at Belleville Tuesday night to ratify a new working agreement amounting to $3.25 per hour spread over four years.

The new contracts, in both instances, are retroactive to Aug. 1, the date on which the old contracts expired.

While approximately 3000 carpenters who belong to the Carpenters District Council of Madison County and the Tri-County Illinois District of Carpenters still are without a contract, they are continuing to work throughout the 16-county area.

No meetings between the SIBA and carpenters' unions have yet been scheduled, but negotiations are expected to be held this year. The bill is among the legislation still to be acted upon by the governor.

Governor Says He Will Sign Lake Park Bill

Assurance that he intends to sign the Horseshoe Lake bill providing a $2 million appropriation for state purchase of the lake to create a park was given by Illinois Governor Richard B. Ogilvie to a Granite City labor representative in Chicago this week.

The governor told Edwin F. Reiske, president of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council, that he will sign the bill and is in favor of the park development program for the Horseshoe Lake area.

Reiske said he talked with Gov. Ogilvie at the Conrad Hilton Hotel Tuesday morning shortly before the governor addressed the annual Illinois AFL-CIO labor convention which Reiske and approximately 30 other labor delegates from the Quad-City area attended.

"I told the governor we would like a commitment as to what he plans to do about the bill," Reiske said. "He told me that he will sign the measure."

Reiske, a former member of the Illinois Horseshoe Lake Commission, also said he discussed the legislation with Lieut. Gov. Paul Simon (D., Troy) and House Speaker Ralph Smith (R., Alton), and both officials assured him again that the governor is favorable to the bill and intends to sign it.

The legislation, which will provide the first major step toward creation of a state park and conservation area, was approved by the General Assembly this year. The bill is among the legislation still to be acted upon by the governor.

Air Pollution Here Below Alert Level

Air pollution in the Granite City area has remained well below the alert level for the past several days, in contrast to that of St. Louis, David Brommer, acting technical secretary for the Granite City air pollution control board, reported today.

The local board has been in contact with the Illinois control board on monitoring air pollution levels, and the state board said levels here are five times lower than the alert level.

The Illinois board has an alert network in which emissions from industrial and large commercial operations would be curtailed if the situation reached critical levels, Brommer said.

No Public Labor Day Observances Planned

Special entertainment will be absent this Labor Day weekend at Wilson Park and other area recreational sites, although most are expected to attract local families for their final summer picnics.

At Wilson Park, the 12th annual slow-pitch softball tournament will be featured through Monday and auto racing will be spotlighted Friday night at the Tri-City Speedway.

Bloodworth Critical

John Bloodworth, owner of the Bloodworth real estate agency, is in a coma and on the critical list at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He was stricken with an apparent cerebral hemorrhage early Sunday at his home. He is in the intensive care unit and is not allowed to have visitors.

Wants Full Report
Robertson said he opposed final passage of the tax levy Monday night because he first wants to see a report on revenue which the city anticipates during the year from sources other than direct taxation.

He asked the Finance Committee to prepare such a report for the next meeting, which will be held Tuesday night instead of Monday because of the Labor Day holiday.

The city's tax levy—calling this year for an all-time high of $5,396,720, up $1,044,631 over last year's levy of $2,352,089—must be adopted and filed with the county clerk's office by Edwardsville not later than Sept. 9.

Consideration of the council's agenda of tax problems got under way when Parmley pointed out that the three tax rate proposals turned down by the council in its previous meeting would raise about $300,000. Because of the city's income-outgo imbalance, the council should reconsider its earlier action, he said.

Parmley moved for reconsideration of an ordinance that would raise the city's tax rate for sewer maintenance purposes from its present 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation to 10 cents. The 10-cent rate would raise about $165,000.

Delay School, Negotiators Are Far Apart

Teachers Ready For 'Long Siege' --State Officer

Granite City's striking school teachers appear "prepared for a long siege" in their dispute over new contract terms, Oscar Well, executive director of the Illinois Federation of Teachers, said in a news conference in Chicago yesterday.

At the same time, Well said that teachers "must exert their power to negotiate contracts which give them control of how money is spent."

Well told newsmen that as many as 15 school districts could be on strike in Illinois when classes are scheduled to begin and noted that teachers already are on strike in Granite City and LaSalle-Peru.

He mentioned as other "crisis districts" those in Joliet, Waukegan, Bradley, Belleville and Benton as well as many in the Chicago suburban area.

"All around the state," Well said, "there are local schools which moved hastily in settling contracts so that much of their state aid will be dissipated and wasted."

Burgeoning Bureaucracies
"Administrative salaries have tended to increase much more rapidly than teacher salaries," he added. "In many cases you have burgeoning bureaucracies in schools. This is self-defeating if the money is used only to increase salaries of what I sometimes think of as anti-teachers."

Granite City teachers, meanwhile, scheduled another meeting at 2 p.m. today in the Labor Temple to discuss further steps in their strike action.

Robert L. Johnson, president of Local 743 of the American Federation of Teachers, said decisions as to further meetings with school officials to discuss contract terms and other activity were to be made in the session this afternoon.

New Talks Last Night Bring No Progress; Order by Page Cited

With the opening of Granite City public schools delayed for at least one week due to failure of union teachers to report, negotiating teams met last night and may confer again at 7:30 tonight but the outlook appears bleak for all parties.

The two-hour bargaining session last night, which followed a regular school board meeting, brought no progress. Estimates indicate that about a half-million dollars separates those representing the school district and the representatives of Local 743 of the American Federation of Teachers.

School officials conducted orientation of 100 new teachers on schedule Monday but that afternoon, in a meeting at the Labor Temple, AFT members voted to not report for work.

Picket lines were set up early Tuesday morning outside the school board office and at Granite City high school, where orientation of all faculty members was slated to take place. About 300 of the teaching staff of nearly 700 taught the orientation.

In a special meeting at noon Tuesday, the board took note of the lack of teacher participation and reviewed a memorandum received Monday from Ray Page, Illinois state superintendent of public instruction. Page ruled that no schools can operate unless all are fully staffed.

With students due to report yesterday, the board voted on the recommendation of Supt. Bob J. Davis Tuesday to change the starting day by one week, until next Wednesday, Sept. 3. The school orientation was changed to Tuesday, Sept. 2, with those who attended this session required to report Tuesday.

New Postponement Possible
In view of Supt. Page's ruling, it was indicated that another postponement will be considered if there has been no settlement on salary levels and other terms of a lengthy working agreement.

Picketing was resumed yesterday by groups of teachers smaller than the large group which assembled Tuesday. Signs displayed stress "No contract—no work."

Illinois public employees cannot legally strike but courts in this region have shown reluctance to enforce the law against teacher groups. In a previous teacher strike in Granite City in the early 1960s, a judge delayed reaching a conclusion in the case until the hearing until the two parties agreed to resume negotiations.

Students, picketed yesterday at Frohardt grade school and at other locations today, voicing their preference to attend classes in September 1969 rather than June 1970. At least the minimum number of school days required by the state has to be met by June 30 or there are heavy financial penalties—1% of yearly state tax aid per day.

The text of State Supt. Page's ruling on this point is given on page 28 of today's issue.

Additional education night courses in the "Win Back" night school for adults seeking high school diplomas are to be postponed from their scheduled Sept. 2 starting date due to the delay in launching the regular school term.

Avoid Day-to-Day Basis
Text of Supt. Davis' recommendation Tuesday follows: "Attached is a memorandum from Ray Page, state superintendent of schools, regarding the opening of schools where there are impasses in negotiations."

"With this policy being issued on Tuesday, Sept. 2, 1969, it is recommended that schools be opened on a day-to-day basis."

Kelso, Cottrell, Bieniecki in New Posts with Firm

Rhaderick W. Key, president of the Madison Metal Decorating Co. No. 1 Caine drive, Mazon Industrial Park, announced three organizational changes today.

Howard Kelso was promoted to plant manager with full responsibilities of plant production and control. He is a life-long craftsman in the metal decorating field, having held numerous posts prior to joining the former Granite City Metal Decorating Co.

Kelso resides with his wife, Phoebe, in East Alton.

Harry L. Cottrell was promoted to sales manager. Cottrell was born in Granite City and graduated from the Granite City high school. After graduation, he was employed by Granite City Steel Co. in the payroll department.

He then entered the Army and served in Korea. Upon his discharge, he resumed working for Granite City Steel and attended SIU, Carbondale, where he graduated with a B.S. degree in business administration.

In March 1968, he assumed the position of salesman with the Granite City Metal Decorating Co.

Cottrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Cottrell, local residents, and resides with his wife, Marilyn, and daughter, Julie, on East Lake drive, Edwardsville.

He also announced the establishment of a quality assurance program headed by Henry Bieniecki. This involves a completely equipped laboratory for testing all types of decorating, assuring high quality standards of workmanship.

Bieniecki was born in Granite City and graduated from Granite City high school. He subsequently attended and graduated from Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., in 1964. From 1964 to March 1966, he was employed as assistant laboratory director for Cerro Copper and Brass Co., Monroeville.

From March 1966 to March 1969, he served as a special agent, Military Intelligence, U.S. Army. He then joined the metal decorating firm and is now serving as manager of quality assurance in the newly formed company.

Bieniecki resides at 2529 Ivy lane with his wife, Pat, and daughter, Dawn.

BANANA-MAN AND HIS TREE. Jesse E. Foster, 2022 Edwardsville road, Madison, has bananas growing in his front yard.

Madison-Illinois Banana Capital?

The bananas have bloomed for Jesse E. Foster after three years of nurturing a tree he transplanted to his front yard at 2022 Edwardsville road, Madison.

The bananas began to appear last week while Foster was vacationing away from his home. The early bananas did not develop to any size and withered, perhaps due to insufficient water.

Now, 14 three- to five-inch long bananas are visible on the 13-foot-tall tree. Foster reportedly anticipates that more will sprout but adds, "I'm just watching."

He is less cautious in commenting on an adjacent shorter tree. "Next year, on that tree, I'll have a full stalk of bananas."

Foster brought two yearling plants here from Memphis, Tenn., where a friend was making a similar attempt to grow bananas away from their native Florida climate.

In Memphis, the trees failed to bear fruit.

Several new plants have sprouted here each year from the trees' roots. Last year, Foster gave five trees to other Quad-Cityans who saw his trees and expressed interest in testing their own "green thumbs."

The plants require three years to mature. And so, each fall before the first frost, Foster digs them from his yard and packs the roots into five-gallon pails.

He places them in his basement and occasionally checks to make certain the soil remains moist.

If the trees are taller than his basement, he sets them horizontally.

MORE ABOUT School Budget

for payment of health insurance premiums for all of the staff. An increase of $150,750 in the lunch program reflects increased costs in salaries and food products.

A capital outlay increase of $87,091 provides a start toward purchase of equipment for new classrooms.

Car Window Shot Out Opponents of Water Rate Hike Organize

Partitions opposing any rate increase for the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. are being prepared by a group of objectors and will be filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission before the scheduled opening of the water rate hearing next Wednesday, it was reported today.

Intervening petitions by municipalities and large water users were discussed in a meeting at Belleville attended by officials and lawyers representing municipalities throughout the district. Belleville Mayor Charles Nichols was chosen as chairman of the opposition group.

Under applications filed by the water company, an average rate increase of about 47% in the present rate is sought.

Jennings said the new rate, if granted, would be higher for high-level water users in areas where greater pumping operations are required.

Walks, Drainage Topics of Town Board in Nameoki

Complaints involving hazardous motorbike riding, the need for sidewalk repairs and weed cutting, and lack of action in correcting poor drainage conditions in the Angola drive area were among the problems heard by Nameoki township officials Monday night.

About 40 township residents attended the semi-monthly meeting, during which a resolution was passed authorizing Township Clerk Louis Whitsell to participate in the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund program.

Whitsell reported that formal action by the town board is required in the case of a full-time employee. To qualify under the IMRF program, an administrator or official must accrue 800 working hours per year. Total hours "on-the-job" by the town clerk will be more than 800, he explained.

Bids on Contracts, Buying
Also passed by the board, on second reading, was an ordinance requiring township purchases or contracts amounting to more than $500 to be placed on competitive bidding.

Officials agreed to seek cooperation from the Madison county sheriff's office in halting hazardous operation of motorbikes by youngsters on streets in Miracle Manor. Most of the youthful drivers are too young to be licensed to operate the motor-driven bicycles on roadways, a resident said.

High weeds near a railroad spur in the vicinity of Parkview school still remained untouched, despite several notices from township to railroad officials, it was reported.

A Spring avenue resident complained that tree roots are causing the sidewalk to crack and raise in front of her property.

Answering an inquiry from board members, Nameoki Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks said his department has no jurisdiction in maintenance of sidewalks and alleys, repair work being confined to roadways and streets.

Legal Clarification
Supervisor Harry Briggs said clarification of responsibility in sidewalk repairs will be sought from Township Attorney William Schooley who was not present.

A resident of New Haven Manor subdivision told the board that the township highway department has responsibility for maintenance of all roads in that subdivision.

Mrs. Helen Hawkins, 2600 Angela drive, displayed copies of letters from Bruce Fiegenbaum of the Madison county highway department to Miss Hanks, county clerk, which noted that roads in the subdivision have been accepted under the township highway program.

The area, which is adjacent to Dobey Slough, has been plagued by flood conditions frequently.

Hanks denied accepting the Second Addition to New Haven Manor subdivision, commenting that formal acceptance forms must be signed by the highway commissioner to legalize such transactions and that he had signed no agreement. Only the original section and the First Addition were accepted by the township, he said.

Part of the booth will be used as a recruiting and information center, while a portion of the area is to be used for a game.

In the game, water pistols will be utilized to put out the flames of a row of lighted candles. Prizes will be awarded to the most skilled participants.

As a special attraction, Excelsior Post Six, sponsored by Concordia Lutheran Church, will perform authentic Indian dances in costume, every hour on the hour. Their advisor is Don Beck.

Plan Class Here For Multiply Handicapped

Creation of an orthopedic (multiply) handicapped class in the Granite City school district was authorized by the board of education last night.

A present teacher of the educable mentally handicapped is to be transferred to the assignment. In addition, a non-certificated aide is to be employed for non-instructional duties related to the class.

A room at Central Christian Church is to be rented under the same terms as other church facilities adjacent to some school buildings are rented.

In other business, the board hired Mrs. Martha M. Giana, Collinsville, SIU bachelor degree and two years of teaching experience, as instructor of a middle primary class at Nameoki grade school.

Mrs. Norma L. Lesko, 152 Central avenue, Mitchell, SIU bachelor degree and nine years, will teach an educable handicapped class. Mrs. Diana Sara Hartman, St. Louis Southeast Missouri State bachelor degree and two years, will be a middle primary teacher at Logan grade school.

Mrs. Helen Shepard, 2422 Edison avenue, was hired as a payroll clerk on the comptroller's staff.

Resignations were accepted from Mrs. J. Kraus, Stallings fourth grade teacher, who is ill; Pamela J. Heethuis, who decided against accepting a Logan middle primary teaching position due to unforeseen circumstances; and Miss Diane M. Nott, 2711 Cayuga street, who was to teach educable handicapped at Central junior high school but is to be married and move out of the state.

A position urging full law enforcement has been taken by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Grand Lodge and ratified by local Lodge 1083, it was announced this week.

The policy statement follows: "We believe in God, reverence our country's flag and realize the necessity to preserve the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights, which have served to establish the finest system of government in the world."

"We deplore crime in our streets, violence and disorder on our campuses, and lack of respect of some for our country's flag and the rights of others."

"We abhor the anarchy and chaos in our schools and communities with a continuance of riots, demonstrations and disorders which bring about malicious destruction of property and danger to personal safety."

"We and other loyal Americans have displayed moral indignance and forbearance but are angered, dismayed and disgusted by the lawless acts of radicals, extremists, trained agitators and militants."

"We express concern for the future of our schools and particularly our youth, the majority of whom are decent and law-abiding."

Public Order Essential
"We stand for discipline of those who defy our laws, with the knowledge that public order is essential to achieve a solution to our domestic problems."

"We call for the full support of our membership for law enforcement agencies and courts, and full cooperation in the enforcement of their duties in the prosecution of those who have caused, instigated or aided violations of laws and disorder in schools and communities."

"We favor intelligent dissent, properly used and presented, but not as an excuse for violence or destruction. We demand the arrest and prosecution of those who engage in criminal acts of riot, disorder and rebellion against the laws of our country."

"We demand the expulsion from school of those participating in violent demonstrations, riots or the disruption of classes and the operation of schools, colleges or universities, public or private, whether on or near the school premises, and we demand revocation of scholarships, grants or other monetary aids of a public nature extended to those participating."

Mercer Two Games Behind, Two to Go

Two games remain for each team in the Inter-City Baseball League. Mercer (10-8) trails the leaders by two games and Pocahtons (11-7) is but one game behind top-ranked Collinsville (12-6).

On Sunday at 2:30 p.m., Mercer will host Pocahtons at Wilson Park. Collinsville will travel to East Alton (8-9) and Granite City Steel Credit Union (6-11) will play at Maryville (8-12).

The following Sunday will match Mercer and Credit Union here and send Collinsville to Pocahtons, and Maryville to East Alton.

The possibilities are remote, but if Mercer can win both remaining games and Collinsville loses twice, then Pocahtons, which must play each, will have won one and lost one. A three-way tie for first at the regular season's end would be the result.

The last round of contests saw Collinsville win over Mercer 4-1, Pocahtons with 10-5 and lose 3-1 at Maryville, Credit Union beat East Alton 6-0 and Credit Union then split a doubleheader, downing East Alton 7-1 and losing 4-2.

Fair Profits Up
Certain figures of profits at the 1969 Illinois State Fair were sharply higher this year, Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie said. Increases occurred despite only slightly increased paid attendance, he said.

"The figures tend to show that the state is getting full payment at the fair for the first time in many years," Ogilvie listed these preliminary and selected totals:
Paid attendance, up 7½%; Grandstand ticket sales, up approximately 20%; Concession contracts, based on increased spaces and same rates, up 45%.

Disaster Relief
Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has formally requested $500,000 in federal disaster relief for 15 Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie released $20,450 for a camping area adjacent to a picnic ground near Interstate 55, Conservation Department Director

In a letter signed and addressed to President Nixon, Ogilvie estimated the extent of the damage to public property in the affected areas at $2.5 million.

Covered under the request for assistance are the following counties: Alexander, Calhoun, Clinton, Jackson, Jersey, Je Deville, Madison, Macon, Pike, Pulaski, Randolph, St. Clair, Stephenson and Union.

Flooding in the affected counties occurred in late June and early July when heavy rains raised the level of the Mississippi River, causing subsidiary streams flowing into it to back up and overflow their banks.

Camper's First
A "first" in convenience for campers was assured when Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie released $20,450 for a camping area adjacent to a picnic ground near Interstate 55, Conservation Department Director

The Garden Corner

Time for Fall Gardening

The end of summer is in sight and its time to plan and plant your fall garden.

Vegetables that can be planted now include beets, cabbage, carrots, Chinese Cabbage, kohlrabi, snap beans, turnips and summer squash. Lettuce, radish, mustard and spinach should be planted toward the end of the month.

Several plantings of lettuce and radishes can be made at 10-day intervals for a month or more. Lettuce requires about 45 days to mature for eating and radishes can mature in 23 days. Plant your last planting about two weeks before this date. A light frost will not damage these crops.

Apply some fertilizer before working the soil for these fall plantings. Nitrogen is the most important element, especially for the leafy vegetables. It is probably in short supply because of the heavy rains this summer.

If you are certain that enough potash and phosphorus is in the soil, a one-half pound of ammonium nitrate (33-0-0) per 100 square feet to supply the nitrogen. If there is a need for all nutrients, apply one pound of a complete fertilizer such as 12-12-12 to each 100 square feet.

Even though soil moisture is plentiful in most gardens this time, soils dry out rapidly in August. To get a good stand of plants, sow the seed a little deeper than you do in the spring. Supplemental watering when it is needed will also aid in getting a stand.

Onion Harvest, Storage

The time to dig and cure onions is now if the necks are thoroughly dry or about 95% of the plants have bent over. It is not much of a problem to dig onions. In a year such as 1968, it is a problem to cure them.

Drying normally takes two to four weeks. Place the onions in a dry, ventilated place. It is possible to force warm air over them to aid quicker drying. Failure to dry and cure onions rapidly usually results in a high percent of loss, especially from neck rot. This is extremely bad this year. Neck rot is caused by a fungus that is present in the soil. The main causes is rapid and complete curing.

If your onions begin to rot on the root end, the problem is probably Fusarium bulb rot. This disease usually gets started in a wound—either insect or man-made. Control consists of treating the soil for onion maggots before planting, and then harvest with care.

After the onions are cured and ready for storage, cut the tops off about an inch above the bulb. Place bulbs in a slotted crate or mesh bag and store them in a cool, dry place.

Harvest for Apples, Pears
Harvest time is near for apples and pears. One of the perplexing problems of home gardeners is when to harvest these fruits.

The season is a little later than normal this year, so the fruits should hang a few days longer. Early-maturing pear varieties such as Clapps Favorite and Starking Delicious should be picked now.

The famous Bartlett variety will be ready soon. Seckel ripens about two weeks after Bartlett. Kieffer ripens mid- to late September.

If you have these or other varieties, watch for the change from green to yellowish green. When the color change occurs and when the stem separates from the tree with ease, it is time to pick.

After picking, pears should be placed in a room (basement preferred) with temperatures of 60 to 70 degrees for ripening. They should be ready for eating in about 10 days. If you want to keep them for a long period of time, store in a refrigerator after picking, and then allow to ripen in a warm room.

Apples should be picked just before they reach optimum eating quality. This will be when the flesh color changes from green to yellowish green as noticed on the bottom of the fruit.

Red varieties develop good skin color, and they will separate easily from the tree.

Apples store best in a cool location. A refrigerator is ideal for this. Temperatures should be maintained at 32 to 36 degrees, which will keep the fruit in prime condition for several months.

William L. Rutherford said, "The director said the money will purchase 46.9 acres of land at a rest stop on Interstate 55 at the Sangamon river."

The proposed camping area is next to and surrounding the Highway's Division's eight-acre picnic ground east of the multi-lane divided highway.

The Illinois Department of Conservation will operate the new camping area, which Rutherford said is the first campsite acquired adjacent to a rest area.

The new project "ties into Gov. Ogilvie's plan to put facilities closer and more convenient to the people, Rutherford said."

There are always two things wrong with modern home life—the clock and father.

Oyster Shell Scale

Gray scaly areas and poor growth are signs of Oyster Shell Scale.

Lilac, dogwood and evergreen are favorite hosts. A magnifying glass you can see the boat shaped larva of the second generation as they crawl to new areas of the shrub to set up housekeeping.

One application of Malathion using two teaspoons of the liquid per gallon of water will provide good control of these crawlers. Be sure to get thorough coverage of the leaves and stems. If you are in doubt as to the concentration, read the label for instructions.

Lawn Webworm Control

Fitting mowings when you walk across your lawn are So Webworm Moths.

Late July is the in-between stage of another cycle of lawn webworms. The spring and early summer cycle of moths is severe enough to cause concern. The early cycles build up until the last cycle of moths in late July until mid-August can cause severe damage.

If you have seen large numbers of these moths during the past couple of weeks you can be sure there will be plenty of worms chewing on your grass.

When you have dense turf and enough water to keep the turf growing a high population of worms still cannot eat enough to kill the grass. When drought or melting out disease slows down your turf these hungry worms can mow off your grass and finally kill it. Even crabgrass may be chewed up when food gets scarce.

When to take action depends on your analysis of the situation. If you have seen lots of moths and want to be sure to avoid damage, early August is the season to treat.

One application of Carbaril, Diazinon or Dylux in early August will control the young worms of the last cycle. You can use carbaril granules as effectively as the spray. Do not water the lawn for three days after treatment. If it rains it may be necessary to re-treat.

When you have a dense turf including crabgrass and are getting lots of rain your grass will grow faster than the worms can chew it down.

Late August will be the critical period. Webworm larva eat more as mature. If you can find lots of chewed down areas as large as a saucer heavily water your lawn to speed up growth. Late August treatment with carbaril, diazinon or dylux will still give control but the grass may be slow to recover!

Connecting roots of elm trees are a new threat to nearby elm trees when one tree dies.

Even when you promptly cut down the diseased tree and burn the logs, the nearby trees often go like falling dominoes. Continued study of elm disease shows these root grafts are very common and explain why the disease often appears in the nearest tree.

Cutting the connecting roots is a simple means of preventing spread through the roots. But this does not work unless the grafted roots are cut or killed as soon as the disease appears.

A series of suggested holes between nearby elms treated with vapo quickly kills the connecting roots and prevents the dominoes effect that usually occurs.

For more details on this phase of elm disease, call the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service in Edwardsville for a free copy of our pamphlet on Elm Disease.

Late Summer Pruning

Late summer pruning can create the ideal setup for winter injury or complete loss of shrubs and evergreens.

This may seem like a conspiracy to get out of home projects. The only conspiracy here is to protect your ornamental shrubs from winter injury and dieback.

Late summer pruning and fall rains often stimulate pruned shrubs to make one more spurt of growth when maturing wood and winter dormancy usually occurs. This off-season stimulation can be a disaster if an early freeze or too weather finds these tender plants before they mature.

If you have not pruned your plants and feel there is a need then postpone this project until early fall or early spring.

Flies, Mosquitoes - Flies can be easily controlled indoors when you hang plastic resin strips in each room.

When these strips contain 29% dichloro, they will kill flies and mosquitoes for four weeks or more. The strips will not work outdoors.

The vapors are not harmful to breathe but are fatal to insects.

Be certain to hang the strips where children cannot reach them and away from fish bowls and food containers.

Unrest - The old world of ours may not be flat, but nowadays it certainly is on edge.

Repairs, Improvements Among GC Park Plans

Plans for a tour of park district facilities to prepare a projected list of repairs and improvements to be included in next year's budget were discussed during a regular meeting of the Granite City Park board last night.

Board members also discussed a probable revision of fees for the Wilson Park swimming pool for the 1970 summer season, noting that the difference in fee payments for district residents and non-residents should be brought more in line with the skating rink admission fees.

A hospital insurance plan for park district employees by the Golden Rule Insurance Co. of Belleville was presented to the board.

The proposal is one of three received by the park board in its efforts to determine a suitable hospital insurance program for park employees who are not now covered by hospitalization.

Request of the Downtown Retailers, Inc. for permission to locate the Santa Claus cabin in Civic Park during the Christmas season was approved. Board members also approved a request of the Lincoln Plaza Mothers club for use of the Community Center for a rummage sale.

6 New 'Citizen' Members May Join Council

The East-West Gateway Coordinating Council board of directors approved yesterday a plan to expand the board membership by creating a "regional forum" of six new citizen directors—three of them from the council's Illinois area and three from the Missouri sector.

The plan, which has become controversial over the addition of representatives who are not elected government officials, is subject to approval by the Council General Assembly which will meet in October.

Only change in the plan as finally adopted by the board yesterday was an amendment providing that a citizen to be appointed by the governor of Illinois would be from one of the Illinois counties of Madison, St. Clair or Monroe, while the citizen representative for Missouri must be appointed from Jefferson, Franklin or St. Charles county.

Originally, the plan provided for appointment of an Illinois and a Missouri citizen by the governors of the two states, with no limit on residency.

Two of the new directors are expected to be Negroes, East St. Louis Mayor Alvin G. Fields and St. Louis Mayor A. J. Cervantes told Negro delegations attending yesterday's board meeting that they would appoint Negroes as citizen representatives of their respective cities.

Several "no" votes were declared on a voice vote to expand the board from 15 to 21 members.

Harold Landolt, chairman of the Madison county board of supervisors, Joseph Badaracco, president of the St. Louis board of aldermen, and Ralph Smith, presiding judge of Franklin county, said they did not believe non-elected persons should be on the council board.

The plan, in addition to providing for appointment of one board member by each of the

The fair, a new way of opening the United Fund drive, is set for Sept. 27-28 at the Wilson Park rink-recreation center.

Illinois and Missouri governors, and a board member appointed by the mayors of East St. Louis and St. Louis, also calls for appointment of a citizen member by the Madison county board of supervisors and by the St. Louis county supervisor.

Illinois Provides Lands Meanwhile, a bill appropriating $16,000 in Illinois state funds for the Gateway Council was signed at Springfield by Governor Richard B. Ogilvie. One-half of the amount is payable during the 1968-70 fiscal year.

Eugene Moody, executive director of the Gateway Council, noted that it is the first time funds for the council which works with local governments in the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area to ensure their eligibility for federal grants.

Missouri has provided funds twice in past years — $7500 in rate increases at the Aug. 18 meeting, told the council it is foolish to bring in these ordinances until you get a realistic tax levy. The people are riled up now about the taxes they are paying.

"Instead of raising taxes, you should be cutting down. With the money we have, we can only repair the sewers. We can't put in new lines. We don't have a realistic budget or tax levy."

"That's a pretty speech," Parmley replied. "But the fact is the people who sit here and vote these expenditures don't want to vote the tax to pay for them."

"It's a simple matter of playing politics and saying 'We'll cut taxes' when you know we can't cut."

"It's all right for you to spend money for pet projects in your wards. Now the city is asking for its fair share."

Alderman Steve Basarich referred to the recently formed Taxpayers Expenditure Survey Committee and told the council:

"The taxpayers' committee already has threatened the city with tax objections. If you pass these (tax rate hikes), believe me you are going to get them."

But two aldermen who opposed the tax increases the first time they were presented switched their stands. Alderman Samuel Whitmer said he had opposed the rate hikes for sewer maintenance and fire protection a week earlier because the council had turned down the five-cent special tax for police protection.

"I know that was the wrong thing to do. We need the money to provide services. I should have voted for them. Everybody here should vote for all of them."

Alderman Thomas Boker said he felt as Whitmer did and that aldermen should vote for the good of the entire city rather than think only of ward benefits.

Wants Referendum

Alderman Paul Schuler called for a referendum on the tax proposals, noting that the city has not had any meetings with the Taxpayers Survey committee.

Schuler maintained that the city has until Dec. 31 to file its tax levy with the council. But Alderman Paul Rutledge and City Attorney Leon Scroggins told Schuler the Dec. 31 date applies only in instances where special levies developed by law or referendum after the regular levies had been filed in September.

Rutledge warned the council that "since May 1 (beginning of the city's fiscal year), you already have spent $70,000 on various special improvements. You'd better have something to replace it. I'm not going to vote for these higher taxes — not because we don't need the money, but because we have to cut down."

Robertson also called for an election on the tax proposals. "I don't think the council has the right to levy a tax on which the people don't have a chance to express themselves," Robertson argued. "I am going to vote 'No' — against taking that right away from the people."

"What we need to consider carefully is this matter of sewer repairs," he added. "We're spending a lot of money and not getting any results."

"We have given the mayor and the city engineer a blank check in trying to give the city sewer relief, but we're not getting any results."

Mrs. Darnell Leader Of 1022 Navy Mothers

Mrs. Norma Darnell, 211 Center street, new commander of the Illinois Navy Mothers—elected at the 10th annual convention, held in Taxco, Mexico, last week. She heads an organization of 29 clubs in the state with a membership of 1022 mothers.

An active member of the Quad-City Unit since 1957, Mrs. Darnell holds a life membership.

She has served on the executive board for the past two years as state finance officer. She previously served two years as state rules and regulations chairman.

A past commander of Quad-City Unit 850, she was eligible for membership through her son, Victor L. Darnell, who served in the Marine Corps as part of an elite honor guard.

The installation ceremony followed the election. Mrs. Darnell was escorted by Chief Dwyain Carpenter of the U.S. Navy.

Mrs. Norma Peterson, Rockford, a past commander, served as installing chaplain. Installing adjutant was Mrs. Nellie Gentry of Des Moines, Ia., national judge advocate.

A banquet was served and the speaker of the evening was Commander Arnold Wagoner of Great Lakes.

Mrs. Darnell's duties will conclude in 1971, after which she is to serve as junior past commander for another two years.

ing any relief. "I'm opposed to these taxes but the people should make the decision."

Operating on Deficit

Alderman Charles Moerlein warned that Granite City "definitely is operating today on a deficit. Unless there are other sources of revenue, we'll be operating on tax anticipation warrants before the year is out."

On a roll call vote, the motion to reconsider the fire tax lost 8-7, with "no" votes cast by Norn, Rutledge, Basarich, Robertson, Poulos, Green, Moerlein and Schuler. Alderman Clyde Boyd was absent during Monday's session. Voting "yes" were Jarrett, Whitmer, Dallas, Moerlein, Parmley, Dawes and Boker.

Parmley then moved for reconsideration of a five-cent increase in the fire protection rate. It was defeated by identical vote.

"There's no need of presenting the other one," Parmley said. This was in reference to an ordinance calling for a special five-cent police protection tax.

"But hold on. I have another one here," Parmley remarked. He read an ordinance that would have provided a five-cent tax rate, which would raise about $60,000, for the city's working cash fund.

Moerlein remarked that he believed the amount of working cash capital was limited by law and that tax objections might result from such a levy.

Have $700,000 Limit

Scroggins told the council that the city now has a working cash fund which at no time has exceeded $250,000. He pointed out that the city's state statutes would permit a maximum of $700,000 in such a fund.

Rutledge pointed out that the working cash fund as originally set up "isn't enough today and it should be built up." He pointed out that the city can only borrow from the working cash fund, but cannot permanently transfer money from this fund into another.

Percy Downstate Office to Open In Springfield

Sen. Charles H. Percy, Illinois Republican, this week announced the appointment of John R. Caldwell as his special assistant. Caldwell will head the senator's new Springfield office, which will open in early September.

Caldwell, 59, has served since 1965 as assistant to Victor Smith, chairman of the Illinois Republican State Central Committee. He will assume his new duties with Percy Sept. 8.

"Our new Springfield office will allow us to be more responsive to the needs of all of our downstate citizens," Percy said. "John Caldwell's experience will enable me to maintain closer touch with the people of downstate Illinois."

"Moreover, my new headquarters in Springfield will enhance an effective day-to-day link with the Republican State Central Committee, with the new Republican administration of Gov. Ogilvie in Springfield and with the state legislature."

Revenue Sharing Factor

"In an era of revenue sharing and ever closer cooperation and coordination with the states and local communities, such continuing field liaison work is vital in helping to make my office a strong instrument of creative federalism," Percy added.

Caldwell graduated from Springfield high school and attended the Wisconsin State Teachers' College before becoming a professional basketball player. For 15 years, he spent many evenings as a referee at major Illinois basketball games.

From 1956 to 1964, Caldwell worked in the office of the Illinois Secretary of State. As chief hearings officer in the driver license division, Caldwell made numerous appearances throughout Illinois, speaking for highway safety. Before joining the Republican state staff, Caldwell negotiated a multi-million-dollar downtown urban renewal project on behalf of the city of Springfield.

Caldwell also spent 26 years in various executive management positions in private industry. He and his wife, Helen, make their home in Springfield.

The new Percy office will be located in downtown Springfield at the Main Post Office. From his headquarters, Percy said, Caldwell plans to travel extensively throughout downstate Illinois, including the southern and central parts of the state as well as suburban Chicago counties. He will be assisted by Mrs. Gloria Barnes.

Senator Percy also maintains an Illinois office at the Federal Building in Chicago which is headed by Mrs. Gretchen James, his administrative aide.

City Insurance at Stake In Crossing Guard Issue

An hour-long argument over the removal of five school crossing guards from a new list of 16 appointees, because of physical impairments reported by examining physicians, ended at a regular council meeting Monday night with action which Mayor Donald Partney said jeopardizes the city's entire insurance program.

The debate originated when Alderman R. E. Robertson challenged Mayor Partney's failure to reappoint a crossing guard who had served until this year.

After an exchange in which Robertson demanded to see a "confidential" report by police concerning the guard, the argument quickly swung around to a discussion of reports that five of the 16 guards appointed by Partney last week had since been taken off the list.

Both Mayor Partney and Chief of Police Ron Veizer explained the removals were the result of physician examinations in which three of the crossing guards were found to have heart conditions and two others failed to pass required eye tests.

Several aldermen took up the cause of one guard whom they said had served well, commenting that even if his eye examination had not been favorable, the guard recently had obtained a driver license.

City is Liable
Partney remarked that the city would be liable if it placed a guard on duty who died on the job or who was unable to carry out his duties, resulting in an emergency.

Alderman Paul Schuler challenged the statement and asked City Attorney Leon Scroggins if the city would be liable for "a man working if he wanted to work." Scroggins said the city could be liable under workers' compensation laws up to $25,000.

Schuler asked for the report concerning the one guard. Veizer said the physician had not yet sent it to his office.

"Then you mean this man is out of work because we don't have the report?" Schuler asked.

Alderman Claude Green said he considered "this a serious thing. If he passed his driver's test it would seem he could direct traffic across a street."

"We understand these people are young people; otherwise, they wouldn't have this kind of job."

Green made a motion to appeal the man's removal from the list and to replace him on the job, but withdrew the motion. Partney explained that the standards for the guards are established by the insurance company and it is up to it as to whether or not it will insure a city employee.

The council passed over the issue to take care of other business, but near the end of the meeting Schuler presented a motion that the guard who had been discussed be placed back on the job and that a heart condition not be considered a deterrent to holding a job as a crossing guard.

Urges Delay
Alderman Whitmer counseled a street without his glasses, suggested they get a second doctor's report if necessary. "But if he can't pass the physical, then he shouldn't be put to work."

Schuler's motion carried on a roll call vote, with four negative votes, cast by Rutledge, Whitmer, Jarrett and Boker.

Partney said that since Schuler's motion eliminated a heart condition as an obstacle for work as a crossing guard, all five of the removed guards would be put back on the active list.

He told the council that the action could cause the city's insurers to "knock out our entire insurance pool. If you're a member, we lost our insurance about two years ago and we had a lot of difficulty finding insurance."

After the meeting, the mayor said that, rather than see the city's insurance program be jeopardized, he will make an effort to withdraw the five crossing guards from the regular city insurance pool and make some arrangement for the city to insure them.

Call for Bids
On a motion by Alderman Whitmer, the council authorized City Comptroller Robert Stevens to advertise for new fire hose and a nozzle on specifications to be provided by the fire chief.

Also on a motion by Whitmer, the council authorized a call for bids to furnish a new car for Fire Chief Earl Fronbarger; four aldermen voted against this motion.

Alderman Roy Poulos, chairman of the Police Committee, obtained approval of a motion to seek bids for furnishing the police department with two new station wagons for the "canine corps." Both present cars are 1966 models.

The council approved a motion by Poulos to cut off flasher signals on Niedringhaus avenue at Grand avenue because stop signs now serve to halt traffic coming into Niedringhaus.

Week's Vacation
Boker charged during the meeting that in negotiation of new contracts for street department workers, the employees "were robbed of a week's vacation."

He said the contract should have provided three weeks of vacation after five years' employment, but the contract provides only two weeks as finally approved.

The council concurred in his motion that the street committee investigate the matter and report to the council.

Council members approved a recommendation by City Attorney Leon Scroggins that a claim for $45 in auto repairs be allowed W. T. Cumiskey, 2919 Iowa street, whose car was damaged July 14 when struck by a city vehicle backing out of the city garage.

The council accepted a notice of the Illinois Commerce Commission that it has granted permission to Carling Brewing Co. to intervene in the application of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. for an increase in water rates. No hearing date was specified.

Seek Alley Repairs

A petition signed by 32 residents in the 2200 block of Waterman avenue and the 2200 block of Pontoon road, asking that repairs be made in the alley, along with installation of permanent drainage facilities, was referred to the superintendent of streets and the aldermen of the ward.

The council also received notice from the Illinois state highway division on completion of a Johnson Road improvement from Carlson to Franklin avenues, and state acceptance of the completed work. The notice said total cost was $258,886.

A recommendation by Police Chief Veizer that the council reject a special request to allow night parking on the south side of the 2000 block of Johnson road during a church crusade was accepted by the council.

Veizer pointed out that the city entered into an agreement with the state that no parking be allowed in that area, and that the site involved would supply only a small number of parking spaces. The request was made at the council's Aug. 18 meeting in behalf of the General Baptist Union Crusade, 2033 Johnson road.

MORE ABOUT

by the state superintendent of schools, I believe we have no other course of action to us at this time other than to declare that the schools in Granite City community unit school district No. 9 be closed until at least Tuesday, Sept. 2.

"On that date, if a settlement is reached, we will conduct an Institute Day for those certificated members who were not present at today's institute.

"I further recommend that the first day of pupil attendance not be scheduled until at least Wednesday, Sept. 3.

"If the present situation exists on Tuesday, Sept. 2, I recommend that the board of education reconvene and make further considerations on opening the schools of this district.

"It is not fair to the pupils, their parents, or our staff to await developments on a day-to-day basis.

"With board approval, I intend to instruct the following staff members not to report to work until Wednesday, Sept. 3.

"Teachers.

"2. Less-than-12-month secretaries.

"3. Cafeteria workers.

"Should the present situation still be unresolved by Sept. 3, we may have to reconsider the status of other employees.

"It is my last recommendation that those teachers who reported to work today would not be required to attend any make-up Institute Day."

During Tuesday's special school board session, Harold G. Baker, Jr., attorney for the board in its relationship with teachers, denied rumors that the school district had broken off or wanted to break off negotiations.

In line with this, the board voted to have its administrators board negotiating team seek new talks with the Local 743 Salary and Policy Committee. The two teams had met three times last weekend.

Last night's bargaining session was scheduled in response to the meeting request by the board.

Baker said Tuesday the negotiators appeared to be about $50,000 or $50,000 apart and that one weekend proposal by Local 743 had increased this by about $20,000.

The attorney said employment totals used during the talks in applying salary proposals have included 707, the number of certificated personnel employed, and 727, the number projected for 1969-70.

In addition to approving St. David's recommendation of a one-week delay in starting the fall term, the board gave him broader authority at Baker's suggestion, to order further layoffs if necessary to comply with the state superintendent's instructions.

Affects 9-month Employees

A later interpretation from Page's office said that the district is not empowered to utilize nine-month employees while the work stoppage is in progress, but that 12-month employees can continue their duties.

Baker was critical of the delay in obtaining the memorandum from Page. He said he had been waiting to learn of the shutdown ruling since early August but had not been answered from Springfield.

The basic problem in the negotiations has been the amount

Ticketed Over Stop Sign
A stop sign violation ticket was issued to Ada L. Gorline, 4856 Warnock avenue, at 8:20 p.m. Wednesday at Johnson road and Edgewood avenue.

Stop Sign Charge Filed
Joyce L. Smith, 3201 Kirkpatrick homes, was ticketed on a stop sign charge at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at 23rd street and Washington avenue.

Losses Walled at Lake
Wayne L. Elmore, 2318 East 21st street, reported at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday that he had lost his wallet at Horseshoe lake.

Traffic Signal Charge
Charles Ray Morris, Alton, was ticketed at 4:15 a.m. today on a traffic signal violation charge at Niedringhaus and Madison avenues.

of the raise to be granted teachers.

The school district says that, under its offer, every faculty member would get a raise over last year of $147 a month and many would receive about twice that. Local 743 is seeking substantially more.

In addition to the disagreement over how much money should be paid, there has been a problem of computations in reflecting the total cost of various pay proposals in the form of specific salary schedules.

The two parties apparently have been using different formulas or different statistical processes; they obtain different cost figures when evaluating the potential impact of various pay schedules.

Whether to include cost-of-living pay and other known elements in describing salary offers and requests also may be a complicating factor.

T. L. Campbell, Former Resident, Dies at 63

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Beulah Campbell; one daughter, Mrs. Charlene Wright of Cahokia; two sons, Robert Campbell of Centralia and William Campbell of Hendersonville, N.C.; and five grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Initial Attendance at Madison Schools Down

Enrollment at Madison schools may be down sharply this week, it was learned, compared to the first week of school last year.

An administrator said children are coming to class in increasing numbers each day, with more expected after Labor Day holiday weekend.

The first detailed tally of enrollment is planned next Tuesday.

Area Residents to View U.S.S. Connote Ceremonies

Commissioning of the U.S.S. Connote (P.E-1056), named in honor of the late Navy Commander David R. Connote of Madison, a world war II submarine skipper, will take place at 2 p.m. Saturday at Pier A Naval Base, Charleston, S. C.

Friends and relatives of the Naval hero, including his mother, Mrs. Mary Connote, 1536 Third street, Madison, will witness the traditional ceremonies Saturday, when the new vessel is formally relinquished to the charge of U. S. Navy officers who will command the ship.

Mrs. Connote will present to the U.S.S. Connote officers a painting by Miss Margaret Barker of Granite City. The artist, a member of the Madison Junior high school faculty, will attend the ceremonies.

The commander's mother will be accompanied to Charleston by her two sisters, Mrs. Nellie McCallister and Mrs. Ethel Ross, both of White Hall, Ill. All three ladies are in their eighties.

Other special guests at the commissioning will be Cmdr. Connote's brother, Paul Connote, assistant to the president of the St. Louis Junior College District, and his wife, Mayor and Mrs. Stephen Maers of Madison; and City Controller and Mrs. Robert W. Stevens of Granite City.

The Connote was launched and christened by Mrs. Connote July 20, 1963, at the Avondale Shipyard in New Orleans, La. The keel for the vessel was laid in September 1966.

Cdr. Connote was twice awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action against the enemy. He saw service throughout world war II in the South Pacific, mostly in the vicinity of the Philippines.

The officer was commanding the submarine U.S.S. Trigger in April 1945 when the vessel was lost with all hands, while engaged in a hazardous mission off the coast of Japan. The assignment was to be the Navy Officer's final voyage aboard the Trigger.

A graduate of Madison high school in 1930, Cdr. Connote was appointed to the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., from where he was graduated in 1936. He was a widely-respected officer, it is generally believed he would have attained one of the highest ranks had he lived.

Following the ceremonies

GC Man Injured In Crash Fatal To Truck Driver

A truck driver was killed in a highway collision near Hamel and five persons were injured, including a driver whose auto struck a train, as 12 traffic accidents occurred in the Quad-City area this week.

John Peter Atxetter, 54, of St. Louis, suffered fatal injuries when two tractor-trailer trucks collided head-on at 1:05 a.m. Tuesday on Route 66 a mile north of Route 140 in Hamel township.

Injured was David R. Napper, 46, of 2021 East 20th street. Both were taken to Alton Memorial Hospital, where Atxetter died at 2 a.m. Napper was admitted to the hospital and is in good condition.

State police said the truck driven by Napper ran off the road into the median and into the southbound lane.

George Wagner, 2617 Emme street, was injured when his auto struck the rear of the car of James O. Wyatt, Piedmont, Mo., and then bounced into the 13th car of a 24-car Illinois Terminal Railroad train at 12:30 a.m. today at the A. O. Smith plant crossing on Route Three.

He was taken by ambulance to Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, at his request.

The police report showed that he had passed a line of cars which were stopped for the train before striking the Wyatt auto, which was the first in the line.

Girl Pedestrian Hurt

Edith Monroe, 16, of 1845 Fifth street, Madison, was treated for a hematoma to the forehead and was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 3:30 p.m. Monday after the girl ran into the side of an auto on McCambridge avenue near Sixth street, Madison police reported.

Officers said Linda L. Neudecker, Cahokia, driver of the car, said she was driving south on McCambridge when the girl ran across the highway and into the side of her car. The girl also sustained abrasions and contusions to her right leg and ankle.

Kenneth McCaslin, 33, of 3948 Lake street, Madison, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 8 a.m. Wednesday for injuries received when his motorcycle collided with an auto in the 1200 block of Third street, Madison, police reported.

Officers said a car driven by Sherman Brown, 616 Webster

Mrs. Lettie Surratt Found Dead at Home

Mrs. Lettie May Surratt, nee McClelland, 86, of 2405 Winters drive, was found dead at her home at 6:52 p.m. Wednesday.

A neighbor, Lena McCloskey, became concerned after not seeing her all day and called the housing authority office. Alfred Stark, 2801 Kirkpatrick homes, was sent to the Surratt home, all doors of which were locked.

Stark found her lying across a bed and it was determined that she had been dead for some time. She had been under a physician's care.

Born in Franklin County, Ill., Mrs. Surratt had made her home in this area since 1900.

She was a member of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church of Granite City and 430 of the Eastern Star, Daughters of Union Veterans Tent 90 and the Rebekah lodge.

Mrs. Surratt was preceded in death by her husband, Roy Surratt, in 1959. Her only survivor is a brother, Harvey McClelland of Madison.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Seek to Break Freeze

The Alton and Wood River Chambers of Commerce will join in a U.S. district court action seeking a writ of mandamus for the U.S. Department of Justice to show cause why the highway construction fund freeze in Madison and St. Clair counties should not be lifted.

The action was recommended in a meeting of the joint highway committee of the two chambers and then approved by the Greater Alton Chamber board this week.

street, Madison, was headed east and making a left turn into a parking lot near the Madison fire station when it was struck in the right rear by the motorcycle. McCaslin was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Michael Osuchowski, 19, of 3237 Johnson road, who was injured in an auto accident on Route Three, south of Hartford, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday after receiving first-aid treatment at Wood River Township Hospital.

He suffered abrasions and jagged lacerations to the left arm. X-rays were taken of the skull, spine, arm, hand and ribs.

FIRST BIRTHDAY OF SHANNON TODD HILL

Shannon Todd Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hill, 4415 Wabash avenue, celebrated his first birthday at a party given by his parents in their home Tuesday evening.

The dining table was decorated in a birthday motif adorned with two centerpieces—a large cake, presented to the honoree by his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Frances Moehle, and decorated in white with multicolored candles, and a sheet cake inscribed with nursery rhymes, a birthday greeting and cowboy candles in white, pink, yellow and blue.

The honoree received gifts. His maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Scholebo, are visiting in Sparta; his great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cowell of Clay Center, Kans.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess to the honoree, his brother, Scott, his sister, Julie, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Hill, an aunt, Mrs. Glenda Scholebo, an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Scholebo, and daughter, Rhonda, Betty Smith and Paula Harper.

Visitors in this area are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sartin of Memphis, Tenn., who arrived to spend a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sartin, 2531 Hodges avenue, and children, Linda, Mary Jane, Pamela and Sam Jr. They attended a ball game at Busch Stadium and went on sightseeing tours in St. Louis and the Quad Cities.

A family dinner was held in their honor.

Dual Role at SIU-SW For Nurse, Student

Anyone meeting Patricia L. Santagato anywhere except the health service office at SIU-SW would think she is a college coed, and not a nurse. She wouldn't have it any other way.

Miss Santagato, who lives at 4070 Vesce avenue, says "students treat you differently when they know you are a professional, and I just want to be a student." So, the 1968 graduate of the Lutheran School of Nursing has assumed two identities at the local university.

From 8:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, "Miss Santagato, R.N.," goes about her duties in the university health service office, helping the 80 to 90 people who come for aid in an average day. At any other time, "Pat," as she prefers to be called, is not in uniform and is a busy coed in the classrooms and the student activities office.

The nurse-coed is pursuing her bachelor of science degree in psychology, in addition to working part-time in the health service. The Granite City junior says, "I like to get involved in campus life—I think every student misses something if he doesn't." And get involved, she does.

In addition to serving as personnel chairman of the University Center Board, she was a finalist station nurse for the Mississippi River festival at the campus this summer.

Her latest venture as a coed is the arrangement of a group dynamics meeting at Camp Lakewood in Potosi, Mo., for fellow Center Board staff members. And the constant change of uniforms and identities leaves no room for boredom. Whether anyone locates Patricia Santagato, R.N., or coed "Pat," Santagato depends exactly where and when she is found.

Emphasis On Average Music Students Urged

"Anyone can teach talented children," says Prof. William Tarwater of the SIU-SW music faculty. "But the ordinary student can do so much more than he normally expects of him if he has good instructors."

Tarwater has been proving his thesis during the past three years while serving as curriculum consultant for Experimental Instrumental Performance Clinic in Sarasota, Fla. "It is one of the few Title II projects in music," Tarwater maintains, "that did what it was supposed to do."

Open to any child in grades seven to 12 from Sarasota and Manatee counties, the experiment involves a cross-section of students and the most highly qualified artists to be found "to see what they could do for children who had not been weeded out."

Included were enrollees who ranged in ability from near-professional to a student identified by one teacher as "the worst violin player I have ever heard."

Major objective of this unique program were to improve techniques and musicianship more rapidly, broaden students' musical experience through close contact with outstanding musicians and area music teachers and provide a program for those unable to participate in music during school hours or who could not afford individual instruction.

"Big League" Musicians "Bringing top artists to these students gave them the same inspiration that bringing big league baseball players does for the sandloters," Tarwater said. "They became aware that artists are human—not cold and stodgy."

Tarwater, former French horn player with the Nashville Symphony and Southern Illinois Symphony orchestras, says he was impressed with the dedication of the artists and their ability to encourage and coach the clinic's average participants.

"I wouldn't have come," one unknown performer said, "if it had been 'elite.'"

Another observer, not a musician, commented, "It is most impressive and the first project I've known where the deck wasn't stacked."

One of the chief concerns of the clinic, Tarwater pointed out, is improving instrumental music teaching. "We found that chamber music brings its performers immediately into contact with a medium recognized as most challenging and satisfying. "It demands the player's maximum independence and interdependence, exposing his every movement with a group context; it lends itself to close coaching by the teacher and independence in rehearsal from both the teacher and the student. This method of teaching is also cheaper than private lessons."

Commuting to Florida for three years may seem like a long way to go to prove a point, Tarwater says, but he has acquired knowledge which he hopes to apply at SIU-SW. "I have also made friends and had fun I'll never forget," he adds.

River Festival Director
The Experimental Performance Clinic in Sarasota, which was expanded this summer, may become a model for the nation, Tarwater predicts. "It has the obligation to generalize its observations to the regional and national levels for the purpose of perspective. The program's meaning is directly related to the goals and directions of music education for the entire nation."

Tarwater, who resigned from the Sarasota project to become executive director of the Mississippi River Festival, says he has been invited to give the address at the experimental clinic can be used to enhance the educational benefits of the arts.

Tarwater came to SIU's Carbondale campus in 1959 and transferred to the Southwest Missouri State in 1967. Born in Maryville, Tenn., he received his B.S., M.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Feebody College, where he was an assistant professor before coming to SIU.

He and his wife, whom he met when both were teaching at Eastern Kentucky College, and their three daughters live in Glenwood Estates near Edwardsville.

80 Attend Dance For Cystic Fibrosis Drive

Mrs. Alice Worthen, the Granite City, chairman of the Madison County chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, reports that 80 young people attended a dance and variety show held Sunday at the Wilson Park rink pavilion.

Mrs. Mary Jones obtained the talent for the show. Entertainers include "Cinnamon and Sugar," J. J. and the Cheshires, and Jerry Lewis and the J. L's and a local rock and roll group known as "Most Anything."

Others who made appearances during the afternoon were Miss Granite City, Dottie DeWitt, Mayor Donald Partee, and Mr. and Mrs. Dal Maxvill. Maxvill, St. Louis Cardinals shortstop, is county honorary chairman of the campaign.

Maxvill encountered a little difficulty in reaching the dance,

Salute Venice-Madison Khoury Youth Program

A major Madison-Venice youth program, the Khoury Baseball Leagues, was in the spotlight at a dinner meeting Aug. 21 in Madison, with Larry Linne-man serving as guest speaker. He is assistant coordinator of the Khoury International Office, located in St. Louis.

Formerly a major league umpire and for ten years Khoury chief umpire, he has been active with the Khoury program for 25 years. He praised the Madison Lions, dinner hosts, for their strong support of the Madison-

Venice leagues. Lions President Matt Ozanich presided.

Madison Mayor Stephen Maeras gave the welcome and cited the efforts of a woman manager, Mrs. Shirley Greer, who heads the St. Mary's Booster team. Her husband, James Greer, is manager of another team, the St. Mary's Rebels.

The first and only woman manager in the Madison-Venice boys' baseball program, Mrs. Greer was chosen as "manager of the year" by her fellow managers. Her team is one of the top-ranked squads.

Athletes, Altar Boys

In addition to being a wife, mother and baseball manager, she is a fifth grade teacher at St. Mary's school in Madison and also works with the church's altar boys.

Madison Postmaster William Clinton, league commissioner, commented, "Not only is she a good manager, but she keeps everyone on their toes regarding following rules of the game to the letter." She began managing ten years ago when she took over her husband's team while he was seriously ill and hospitalized.

Robert Rogers, meeting chairman, was listed by Lions Lee Abernathy and Mick Strange. Among managers and coaches honored were Tony Young and Tim Bennett Jr. of Fox Industries, Doyle Pinnon and Willard

Walker of Sedlack, Dewey Obermeyer Sr., Curt Bosworth and Albert Wise of Save-Mor, John Hooks and Tom Hooks of St. Mark's Cardinals, Wilburn Gulledge, Otis Johnson and Ralph Bailey of Filan-Maeras, Ronald Davis and Rogers of the Madison Lions, Mrs. Greer and Jack

Contest Limited to 10

Bands Invited to Battle Sept. 14 at Park Rink

Registration of teenage music groups from the Quad-City area still is being sought for entry in the second annual "Battle of the Bands" contest, to be held at the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 14.

Interested groups may register at the Fornaszewski music store, 3009 N. Main St., or obtain further information by calling 877-2475.

Due to the length of time each band is permitted to perform during the competition, the number of competing groups will be limited to ten, it was announced this week by John Fornaszewski. The local musician and store proprietor is coordinating the "battle" for the contest's co-sponsors, the Granite City Jaycees and the Clark's Teaberry Gum.

Winners in the local contest are eligible to compete at the state level, with the Illinois winners traveling to Atlantic City, N. J., for the national championship.

Thousands of dollars in cash along with recording contracts and tours across the country are among the prizes awarded to winning groups.

Competing musicians must be at least 13 years of age but no older than 19 at the time of the contest.

Area young people will be invited to view the Sept. 14 contest and dance to the groups as each perform a 10-15-minute program.

Leaving for a Year Of Study in Germany

Miss Linda Sue Stout, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stout, 2821 East 28th street, will leave Monday for New York, from where she will sail Sept. 3 on the S.S. Rotterdam for a year's study in Germany.

She will be accompanied by a group of seven other students from Washington University. Miss Stout, who has attended Washington University the past three years, has a full scholarship and will study at Tubinger University in Tubinger, Germany.

She will live in the student dormitory until the end of 1970, when she will return home. She was graduated from Granite City high school in 1965.

'Y' Teen Town Sets Special Dance Monday

Because of the delayed opening of Granite City schools, the YMCA Teen Town has scheduled a special dance for area teenagers from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Monday.

The Labor Day dance will feature "Blue," the group originally scheduled for the Sept. 6 dance. "Blue" appeared at a dance at Wilson Park several weeks ago.

The first Saturday dance of the fall schedule is set for Sept. 8, with "Lord Chamberlain" providing the entertainment.

Basic Oxygen 43.5% Of July Steel Output

Basic oxygen furnace steel production in July came within 7000 tons of equalling open hearth steel output.

American Iron and Steel Institute reported on the basis of preliminary figures that the relatively new basic oxygen steelmaking process accounted for 4,942,000 tons of the raw steel poured during the month, compared with 4,949,000 tons produced in the long-dominant open hearth furnaces and 1,473,000 tons produced in electric furnaces.

At 43.5%, it was the highest proportion of total monthly steel output ever achieved by the basic oxygen furnaces.

July steel production by the three processes totaled 11,364,000 tons, down from 11,810,000 tons in June, and from 11,652,000 tons in July 1968.

The July figures raised steel production for the first seven months to $2,072,000 tons, compared with $2,072,000 tons in the corresponding period of 1968, when steel customers were building heavy inventories in anticipation of labor trouble in the industry.

The BOF's share of the 82,072,000 tons was 33,561,000 tons, a 12% gain over the 29,961,000 tons produced by the basic oxygen furnaces in the first seven months of last year.

The index for steelmaking based on average production of three years, 1957 through 1959, as 100, was 145.5 during the first seven months of 1969 compared with 150.0 for the same period last year. The index for July was 137.7 as compared with 138.8 for July 1968.

KINDERS RETURN FROM VACATION IN EUROPE

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Kinder and daughter, Nancy, 7 Frontenac lane, have returned from a three-week vacation in Ireland and Northern Ireland. They were accompanied by friends from Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Doolin.

The party toured the country extensively by auto, with stays in Sligo, Galway, Dublin, Limerick and Killarney in Ireland, and Belfast in Northern Ireland.

They were impressed with the beauty of the mountains and lakes, the cleanliness of the country, and the friendliness of the people. Adding to the enjoyment of the trip was near perfect weather, mostly sunny, the temperatures usually in the low seventies.

MRS. LARRY T. KLOBE, the former Miss Diane Denise Luther. A bride of Aug. 22, her wedding took place at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church.

Full School Operation or None, Ill. Supt. Page Rules

Ray Page, Illinois superintendent of public instruction, on Monday advised public school administrators and Illinois county superintendents of schools of the policy relating to the opening of schools according to the Illinois School Code.

In a memorandum to the public school authorities, Page said:

"The following policies must be observed in order that the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction can recognize a school as being legally in session:

- "All schools must be staffed with a full complement of teachers who are properly certified and qualified to teach in their assigned positions.
- "If the opening of the school term is delayed unreasonably to the extent that the legally required days of pupil attendance as defined in the Illinois School Code cannot be met prior to June 30, 1970, the district will be penalized 1% of its annual state aid claim for each day short of the legal term.
- "Failure to meet the legal requirements will affect the recognition status of the district and may result in the loss of recognition for the 1969-70 school year.
- "If a school district is not in full operation with all attendance centers properly staffed, no part of the total program can be operated. This means that the school cannot engage in interscholastic activities and other school-sponsored activities.

Police Offer Reward In Auto Vandalism

A reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of vandals who extensively damaged the private auto of Police Patrolman Ronald Grzywacz Aug. 23 was offered by the Madison police department Tuesday.

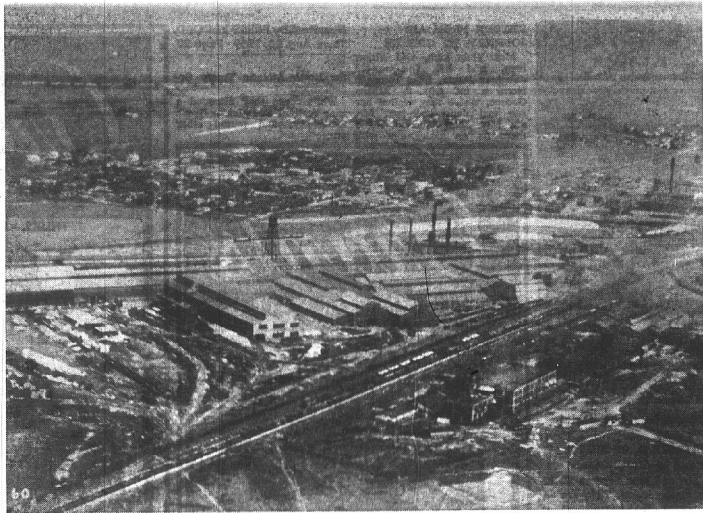

Chief of Police Emmett Paria said he is convinced the damage to Grzywacz's car was in reprisal for the police officer's effective participation in a particular arrest case.

The side mirror, aerial and windshield wipers were torn off Grzywacz's 1965 car, which also was dented in the hood and scratched around the sides and on the trunk.

Crossing Collision

Autos driven by Imogene Miller, 2725 Iowa street, and George Smolar, 2401 Gary avenue, were involved in a traffic accident at 5:35 p.m. Monday at the West Ponton road rail crossing.

Steel Boosts Spending For Air, Water Quality

The domestic iron and steel for a wide range of control equipment. A just-concluded survey shows that expenditures of more than $327 million have been authorized for 1969 or later for air and water quality improvement projects by iron and steel companies producing nearly 98% of the nation's steel.

This is an increase of more than $100 million over the amount that had been authorized for such projects a year ago.

When the new facilities are placed in operation, the cost of the industry's investment in air and water quality control equipment since 1951 will rise to more than $1 billion, exclusive of additional millions spent for operating costs and expenditures for research.

Evenly Divided
The new survey, conducted by American Iron and Steel Institute, shows that of projected expenditures for environmental quality, $172,068,000 will go for water pollution control facilities and $135,004,000 for air pollution control facilities.

The sharply higher expenditures accelerate a trend evident for many years.

In 1968, domestic steel companies spent $61,483,000 for cleaner water vs. $54,652,000 in 1967 and $18,761,000 in 1966.

Spending for air pollution abatement last year climbed to $40,101,000 from $39,406,000 in 1967 and $37,607,000 during 1966.

Extensive Research
The steel industry has long been active in efforts to clean the environment; in the 1930s, American Iron and Steel Institute's first water conservation research project was undertaken through a grant to the Mellon Institute in Pittsburgh, and the project has continued since that time.

Since 1953, the industry has sponsored research projects for environmental quality control at Harvard University and Battelle Memorial Institute.

These steel industry-sponsored studies have originated devices such as a smoke sampler for automatically measuring the solid particles in the effluent, an air-borne dust recorder and an instrument for measuring the efficiency of electrostatic precipitators and scrubbers on a continuous basis.

Varied Control Equipment
As a result of its heavy expenditures, the steel industry has a wide range of control equipment.

To help improve water quality it has settling basins, thickeners, scale pits, sludge skimmers, intercepting pumps, floaters, coolant tanks, separators, sewers, recovery units for by-products of coke-making, and other purification devices—some the size of football fields—to trap and remove sediments and oil and to render acid wastes harmless.

The industry's air pollution abatement equipment includes precipitators, scrubbers, filters, mechanical collectors and other devices.

When new mills are constructed, pollution control devices are incorporated into the design as a matter of course.

Social Security Program Marks Its 34th Anniversary

This month, with over 24 million Americans receiving $2.5 billion a month in social security benefits and 20 million people insured by Medicare, the Social Security Administration is celebrating its 34th Anniversary, Ralph Brasher, district manager of Social Security in East St. Louis, reports.

The anniversary is being observed with ceremonies and special displays in many social security offices throughout the country, as well as at the National Headquarters in Woodlawn, Md., just outside of Baltimore.

At the headquarters, an historical room is being opened this week showing milestones of the agency's history—including the desk used by all the heads of the Social Security system since 1935.

When President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the Social Security Act into law on Aug. 14, 1935, he called it "The Cornerstone of a Structure which is being built but is by no means complete."

"The Original Law," continued Brasher, "provided for old age benefits to retired workers in industry and commerce only."

"Over the years, the Social Security Program has expanded so that it now provides financial protection for virtually everyone in the country."

The first benefits to retired workers were paid in 1940. By that time, amendments to the law had been passed to provide additional benefits for the dependents and survivors of insured workers.

In 1950 and thereafter, coverage was extended to millions of other people who were not covered under the original law—farm workers, state and local government employees, domestic workers, ministers, self-employed doctors, professionals and members of the armed forces.

Disability Protection
In 1956, disability protection was added to cover the thousands of people who could no longer work because of serious illness or injury.

"In its first quarter of a century," said Brasher, "Social Security had already grown into a program that protected a worker and his family in the event of his retirement, death or disability. But it didn't stop there."

In 1965, Congress created Medicare to help people 65 and older pay hospital, doctor and other medical bills.

In the past three years, Medicare covered 17 million hospital stays of elderly people. And there were more than one million admissions for post-hospital extended care.

Older people have also received visits in their own homes from visiting nurses, physical therapists and other health-care specialists, paid for by Medicare.

Payments under the hospital insurance program totaled $10.9 billion for the three-year period, and a total of $4.6 billion has been paid under the medical insurance program, which helps pay for doctor bills and other medical services.

In 1967, still other changes were made. Disabled widows became eligible for benefits at 50, people disabled before 31 needed less work to qualify for benefits, and children became eligible on their mother's earnings record on the same basis as on their father's.

Increases in Benefits

Through the years, increases in monthly benefit amounts were made to keep pace with the rising cost of living. Today's average monthly benefit to a retired worker is $85, compared to $63 ten years ago.

The average benefit for a retired couple is $166 a month, compared to $111 ten years ago.

"One out of every four beneficiaries are well below retirement age—young widows, children, and disabled workers and their dependents."

"The protection afforded American families in the event of a worker's death has a face value of $890 billion in potential survivors benefits."

"Ten million people are kept above the poverty level in this country because they are getting Social Security benefits," Brasher says. "Since they have paid into the program for years, they have earned the right to receive their benefit checks—and to do so with dignity."

Withholding from Cash Tips Required

Employees who receive cash tips of $20 or more in any calendar month, while working for one employer, must report the amount of tips received to that employer.

Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, points out that cash tips are subject to withholding of income and Social Security taxes and must be reported to the employer on or before the 10th day of the following month.

The Internal Revenue Service has available free of charge Document 5635, "Employee's Daily Record of Tips and Report of Tips to Employer," which explains briefly the requirements of the law and the forms needed to make the necessary report. Document 5635 may be obtained free by sending a postcard to Publications P. O. Box 1468, Springfield, Ill. 62706, or from IRS offices in Decatur, Champaign, East St. Louis and Peoria.

Philpott emphasized that tip income counts toward Social Security and Railroad Retirement benefits and can result in higher benefits for the employee and his family.

New Mitchell Area Village Incorporation Proposal Involves Much Smaller Territory

The second attempt within 18 months to incorporate part of Chouteau township into a village will be made Tuesday, Sept. 9, when voters within a 437-acre tract ballot on a proposition to establish the Village of Chain of Rocks.

The current campaign is a quiet one, with no public discussion meetings announced. The new incorporation effort is spearheaded by virtually the same group that attempted, unsuccessfully, in February last year to set up the village of Chouteau in an area nearly three times as great as that involved in the Sept. 9 balloting.

That election lost by a vote of 877 to 88.

Balloting in a new effort at incorporation was ordered by Associate Circuit Judge Howard White of Jersey county following a hearing in Edwardsville July 25 on a petition for a referendum signed by more than 50 residents of the area.

No Objections Filed

The petition was filed July 30. No protests were filed and no objections intervened in the case. Thus far, the election process has been without organized opposition, in contrast to the campaign preceding the referendum on establishment of the village of Chouteau Feb. 26, 1968. However, there is considerable anti-incorporation sentiment.

In the earlier effort to form a village, many residents of a horseshoe-shaped area covering 1.91 square miles, including western Mitchell, opposed incorporation.

Among possible disadvantages of forming a village cited by the opponents was a probable increase in taxation, loss of county road and other services.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Page 30 Thurs. Aug. 28, 1969

ices, lack of a ward system which brought fears that residents of a small area might dominate the village office, and the unusual shape of the proposed village, failing to include a full cross-section of the Mitchell area.

Fear of annexation without referendum, by which the proposed village could have been expanded to take in a greater area once the village was established, was a prime issue of opposition in that election and will play a part in the current effort.

New Village Area

The new area proposed for incorporation into the Village of Chain of Rocks includes Sunny Dell Acres and Rae Gene Acres subdivisions on either side of West Chain of Rocks road and extends from Old Aton road on the east to a line south of the Chain of Rocks canal bridge on the west.

The boundaries in the new village proposal do not include the area of the highway near race subdivision, nor an area of 200 West Chain of Rocks road south of the highway near Illinois Highway Three, which were within the proposed boundaries in 1968.

Some residents who were within the boundaries of the proposed village in February 1968, but who are outside the boundaries of the new village plan, say the new boundaries were set by proponents of the village to exclude areas that strongly opposed incorporation in the 1968 election, thus providing an advantage in seeking a favorable referendum vote.

At the same time, these residents who opposed incorporation last year point out they are now placed in a position where their property could be annexed as contiguous territory by any newly formed village, without their having much voice in the matter.

Among those involved in the move to establish the village are Robert Douglas, operator of the Canal Motel, and James Greer of the G & G Lumber Co. Only witnesses at Hearing.

They were among the leaders of the movement seeking incorporation of the Village of Chouteau last year.

Douglas and Greer, along with Willard Fager, a civil engineer who also did the plan and surveying work for last year's election, were the only witnesses to appear at the circuit court hearing Aug. 27 on the petition seeking a new election.

Douglas said he conducted a door-to-door canvass within the area prescribed for incorporation and tabulated a population of 506 residents, not including those living in mobile trailer homes.

He said the territory of the proposed new village encompasses .882 of a square mile, or about one-third of the territory in the proposed village boundaries in 1968.

No announced meetings in support of opposition to the village proposal have been conducted thus far.

A single polling place will be maintained for the election, at the home of Paul Seibold, 232 Paul drive. Polling place will be open from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Judge White has announced he will canvass the vote at Edwardsville on the night of the election.

Reenlistment Policy For Veterans Revised

The Army has announced a new policy which makes Army veterans discharged in grades E-6 and below eligible to reenlist without a loss in grade.

Sfc. Rola B. Mabry, local Army recruiter, said this move will "allow thousands of former servicemen to bring their skills and experience back to the Regular Army without sacrificing one of their hard-earned sergeant or specialist stripes."

Under the former ruling, an E-6 had just three months to reenlist and hold his grade if he had less than four years of total service. Those E-6's with more than four years of service had just 24 hours. Now, both categories can have been out of service for up to 30 months and return without penalty.

It is a different story, however, for those who left the Army in grades E-7, E-8 or E-9. These top noncommissioned officers will still have only 24 hours to reenlist and those who remain civilians for more than a day will have to face a drop in grade.

Army veterans who have been out of service for more than 30 months must apply for a determination from Army personnel officials to find the grade in which they may be reenlisted.

Sfc. Mabry, whose office is located at 1340 Niedringhaus avenue, has further information for ex-soldiers who want to get back into Army green or who need an application for a grade determination. He can be reached by telephoning 676-5980.

Create New Sewer Repair Accounts

Granite City finance officials have created three special sewer funds into which $182,288 has been transferred from various other Nameoki area sewer accounts to help finance a series of expensive sewer breaks, it was reported today.

The new funds were set up for depositing and dispensing monies which legally can be taken out of several of the city's eleven other sewer accounts and then used for sewer break repairs, according to City Treasurer E. R. "Pat" Rich.

Use of fund balances from the old Nameoki area sewer accounts where legally possible was proposed several months ago as one means of meeting mounting costs caused by 18 sewer breaks in various parts of the Nameoki system. The breaks have been costing from $25,000 to $40,000 each to repair.

Overall cost of the repairs, along with new plans to replace an entire section of the Lynch avenue sewer line from Maryville road to Stearns avenue, is the principal cause of a prospective deficit of about a half million dollars in this year's operating budget. City council members have set up an appropriation of $826,000 for sewer repairs and included a like amount in the 1969-70 tax levy. The new levy bill has not yet been passed.

May Use Only Part

While the 11 regular sewer accounts show fund balances totaling $1,509,080, only part of this can be legally transferred to finance sewer repairs, Rich said. Those monies about which there is no legal question already have been transferred into the new special accounts, he said.

The new accounts set up by the treasurer's office and trans-

More Rapid Promotion For Army Nurse Corps

The Army Nurse Corps has announced a new promotion program for newly-commissioned nurses. It places additional emphasis on professional education and experience in determining the rank a new Army nurse will be awarded on entering active duty.

Under the new program, registered nurses with a bachelor of science degree in nursing enter the service as 2nd lieutenants. Now they may qualify as 1st lieutenants.

The new qualification system gives additional credit to professional nurses with advanced degrees and broad nursing experience, and make it possible for them to be commissioned as captains or majors.

Qualifications for a commission in the Army Nurse Corps include being a registered nurse, male or female, between 20 and 35 years of age, single or married and in good physical condition.

Each applicant's qualifications, education and experience are reviewed at the Surgeon General's office, where final determination is made on eligibility and rank when commissioned.

Details on the new commissioning program can be obtained from Sfc. Rola B. Mabry, local Army recruiter. His office is located at 1340 Niedringhaus avenue.

Fees for most classes will be $15 for residents and $18 for nonresidents, $1 higher than last year because of increased costs of operation.

Series of Films by Welles to Be Shown

A series of films by Orson Welles will be shown at the St. Louis City Art Museum at 8 p.m. on the five Tuesday evenings in September.

Spanning 25 years, the films will provide an opportunity for the viewer to assess Welles' artistic development as both actor and director. Admission to all of the films in the series is free and open to the public.

"Citizen Kane," 1941, which opens the series Sept. 2, is considered by many critics to be one of the pivotal works in American film making.

The film is the story of a newspaper tycoon who dies alone and disenchanted, mourning the innocence and happiness of his boyhood.

Other films in the series are "The Magnificent Ambersons," 1942; Sept. 9, "Othello," 1956, Sept. 16, "The Trial," 1962, Sept. 23, and "Chimes at Midnight," 1967, Sept. 30.

Rich in technical and dramatic innovations, the five films are believed to represent one of the industry's most impressive and controversial figures at his artistic best.

Long Eligibility for Veterans' Home Loans

The Veterans Administration is reminding returning veterans they are eligible for home loans for 15 to 20 years after they get out of service.

Eligible veterans who served after Jan. 31, 1955, will have a maximum of 20 years from the date of their discharge or until March 3, 1976, whichever is later, to take advantage of their G.I. home loan benefit.

To determine the expiration date of his own eligibility, each veteran who served after Jan. 31, 1955, can assume that he has 10 years after his discharge from active duty plus one year for each three months of military service.

A Vietnam-area veteran with two years of service, for example, would have 18 years after discharge to use his G.I. bill loan guaranty entitlement.

Uptrend in Applications

Nationally, 254,383 applications for VA loan guarantees were received for the 12-month period ending June 30, 7251 applications were received at the VA regional office in Chicago.

The 1969 total of 254,383 slightly exceeded the 253,725 national total for 1968 when 8491 loan applications were received at the regional office.

These national totals for 1968 and 1969 were the highest since 1957.

The growing volume of applications in 1969 is attributed primarily to the increasing number of young vietnam-area veterans. The G.I. interest maximum was upped to 7 1/2% in January 1969 to increase the availability of credit for veterans desirous of owning their own homes.

Mr. Naser said that "while activity last year was good, it could have been much better if more mortgage funds had been available for G.I. loans."

Some shortage of mortgage funds was noted during the past year. A continued shortage of mortgage funds could hamper G.I. loan activity in the next year.

Venice Crafts Instruction Attracts 200

A summer arts and crafts program, initially scheduled to last six weeks, was extended for an additional month due to its popularity with Venice youngsters.

Held at the Lee Park recreation center in Venice, the program attracted about 200 children between the ages of six and 15.

Sessions were directed by Bernard Long, a Madison district school teacher. During the ten weeks, the youngsters completed many projects, constructing simple but decorative objects from an assortment of items, such as clothes hangers, paper, rocks, beans, milk cartons, paper cups and paper plates.

To conclude the program, an open house was held at the recreation center, with refreshments served and handicrafts displayed by the youngsters for their parents and friends to inspect.

About 180 children enrolled in the program also enjoyed a trip on board the steamer Admiral as the final activity of the summer.

Student Loan Deadline At SIU-SW Extended

An extension of the student loan application deadline date at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern will make an additional $16,000 available to students the fall quarter opening Sept. 24.

The loan deadline extension, according to Edward Affsprung of the student work and financial assistance office, is for funds available through the National Defense Student Loan program. He said SIU-SW will provide more than $150,000 in aid to students through this program for the 1969-70 fiscal year.

"We're in very good financial shape to aid our students in a number of other programs as well," Affsprung said. More than $31,000 is still available for Economic Opportunity grants, in addition to moneys through Illinois guaranteed loans and United Student Aid Funds, he said.

Applicants seeking funds for the fall quarter may file through Affsprung's office now through mid-September.

Simon Speaks at SIU World Youth Conclave

LT. Gov. Paul Simon urged high school seniors participating in the eighth annual Youth World at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale last week to travel abroad, to share American technology with the world, and to take pride in their community and nation.

Simon addressed a special session of the week-long workshop which is designed to develop qualities of leadership in outstanding high school seniors. It is sponsored by Youth World Inc. in cooperation with Southern's division of technical and adult education and department of government.

Among the 38 students from throughout the state completing the program was Deborah J. Smith, 224 Edgewood drive. Simon told the young people that most problems at home and abroad "can be solved by communication—by people sitting down and talking rationally with one another."

Students participating in the Youth World program got experience in committee and legislative work by acting as delegates to a mock United Nations General Assembly. Lectures and discussion groups led by faculty members of various departments of the University focus attention on responsibilities of government and of the individual citizen at the local, state, national and international level.

Participants are sponsored by local business, fraternal and veterans' organizations and are approved by the heads of their schools.

Women Being Recruited As Dental Assistants

The U.S. Army is recruiting young women interested in becoming dental assistants, according to Sgt. Morris L. Cook, local recruiter at 1340 Niedringhaus avenue.

"In the Women's Army Corps," he said, "they have an opportunity to learn while they serve." The training program is comparable to that in the military field.

Several months of basic dental training at an Army school are followed by an assignment to a hospital or dispensary where practical experience is gained.

Young women between the ages of 18 and 34, with a high school education, may apply. Further information may be obtained from Sgt. Cook at the local recruiting station.

Starting this fall, all undergraduate women at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale can set their own dormitory hours if they are in good standing—and if under 21—have their parents' consent.

The amended policy approved by the SIU board of trustees has the effect of adding freshmen and sophomore women to self-determination status.

Women's hours will remain the same, however, for those who don't qualify for self-determination. Those are 11:30 p.m. on weekdays, 2 a.m. on Saturdays, and midnight on Sundays. The board voted to maintain the present schedule for the 1969-70 academic year.

Hours apply to an campus residence halls and all off-campus housing approved for SIU undergraduates.

Previously, self-determination was permitted to juniors and seniors 21 or over, or juniors and seniors under 21 with parental consent. Second term sophomores could qualify with a 3.25 grade average.

Candy Strippers Obtain Equipment for Hospital

A general purpose fluorescent lamp termed Vita-Lite has been purchased by the Candy Strippers of St. Elizabeth Hospital and has been presented to the nursery. Mrs. Louise Sedlack, volunteer director, spearheaded the purchase. The lamp, which operates in conventional fixtures, encompasses the full spectral range of outdoor light, including ultraviolet. The light is placed 16 inches above the crib, with the baby wearing only a cloth covering the eyes. The baby is kept under the light until the bilirubin is gone. Funds for the equipment were raised by the Candy Strippers through car washes, bake sales and tag days.

Combat Arms Option Offered by U. S. Army

A combat arms noncommissioned officer candidate enlistment option program has been opened according to Lt. Col. Donald H. Ruby, commanding officer of the U. S. Army recruiting station at St. Louis.

Applications are being limited to men without prior service in any of the armed services or men separated with three or less years service and eligible for enlistment in grade E4 or below.

Applicants must further be at least 18 years of age, be a high school graduate or have successfully completed the high school General Educational Development test, and meet prescribed mental and physical qualifications.

Enlistment will be for a period of three years and there is no limit to the number of dependents an applicant may have.

Referring to the special option, Col. Ruby said, "It will allow applicants with leadership ability an opportunity for an accelerated promotion to the grade of sergeant after 21 weeks of a successful completion of the formal phase of instruction."

Further information about this program and other Army options can be obtained from Sfc Rolla B. Mabry at the recruiting station at 1340 N. Ringhaus avenue or by telephoning 876-5950.

Firms Lag in Filing New Income Tax Forms

About 200,000 Illinois businesses have yet to file forms for collection of the new state income tax, according to George E. Mahin, director of the State Department of Revenue.

He said that less than $10,000 had been collected as of late last week. Forms were to have been returned by then, but only 100,000 of 701 forms had been processed through the income tax center in Springfield.

The state has started to increase its staff to collect and process about 765 million forms to be filed under the income tax law passed this year by the General Assembly.

The revenue department has received more than 70,000 phone calls about refunds, a spokesman said.

The General Assembly is expected to designate an area of authority in the matter, probably in the office of state auditor Michael Howlett, when it reconvenes in October.

Mahin said collections are expected to increase after Labor Day as problems in the collection system are straightened out.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Wilson Jr. and sons, Brett and Mark, 2920 Faith avenue, spent their two-week vacation visiting friends and relatives in Tennessee, Virginia and Michigan. They were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor in Kingsport, Tenn. Wilson and Taylor became friends while serving in the Army. Points of interest toured included the birthplace of Davy Crockett in Limestone, Tenn. They were guests of Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson sr., in Waynesboro, Va. This was during the severe flooding in the state, and the senior Wilsons were fortunate enough to be situated on high ground. A home Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Jr. had previously lived in was completely under water. A trip was made to Mt. Solon, Va., to view the natural chimneys and to attend the annual jousting tournament, in which horseback riders attempt to ring hoops on lances.

Leaving the south, the travelers continued on to Livonia, Mich., to visit his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dyl, and their children, Stanley Jr. and Frank.

The families went sightseeing in the Detroit area, and returned home in order to attend the 12th birthday party of their niece, Sandy Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clitus Scott, Sunflower court.

Venice High Enrolment Up, Grade School Down

A total of 985 students reported Tuesday at the Venice public schools to begin the first full day of classes of the 1969-70 school year, according to attendance figures compiled by Venice Assistant Sup. of Schools Robert N. Vickers.

The student population figure is 62 pupils fewer than the number projected by school administrators prior to classes starting this week. Additional students may be planning to report to school after the Labor Day weekend.

Fourteen more high school students attended classes than were expected, Vickers said, noting that the 12th grade enrollment of 55 pupils may comprise the largest senior class in the history of the Venice school. Other classes at the high school level showed attendance figures of 70, ninth grade; 53, tenth grade; and 50, eleventh grade.

The Venice district had a total of 209 high school students in the 9th-12th grades when sixth-day attendance figures were reported last year.

Most absentee children are in the kindergarten through sixth grades. The number reporting Tuesday was 325, compared to the estimated enrollment of 395.

The junior high level (seventh and eighth grades) had 98 pupils, or 19 students fewer than projected for this term.

Pupils enrolled in the Venice district's special education program number 11 "Type A" students and eight handicapped pupils.

Tuesday's enrollment figures by grades: Kindergarten, 42; first grade, 42; second, 45; third, 34; fourth, 52; fifth, 46; sixth, 37; seventh, 43; eighth, 53; ninth, 70; tenth, 53; eleventh, 50; and twelfth, 55.

GC Diving Club Enrolls 18, Now Has Over 85 Members

The Bubblemasters Scuba club of Granite City, one of the largest and most active diving groups in the Midwest, increased its membership roster to more than 85 divers Monday evening with initiation of 18 new members.

Neil Winters, Bubblemasters president, said all those inducted into the club during a special meeting at the local YMCA had recently concluded a scuba (self-contained underwater breathing apparatus) diving course, taught by Bubblemasters instructors Jack Atkinson and Carl Krohne.

The training program, conducted at the Tri-City YMCA pool, started in early July.

Initially, instruction was offered on a limited basis to ten trainees, but the course was expanded to two evenings per week when more than double the expected number enrolled. The new divers are from Bethalto, Edwardsville, Wood River and Collinsville as well as the Quad-Cities, Winters said. Most will make their first open-water dive this weekend at Bull Shoals Lake, Mo., qualifying them for diver certification.

In other business Monday evening, final plans were made for the club's Labor Day weekend outing to Bull Shoals. Members will compete in various spearfishing contests against other regional diving groups and also participate in an annual inter-club contest with the Alton Masketeers for possession of a coveted traveling trophy.

Winters reported on a dive made last Sunday at Big Springs, near Van Buren, Mo., in which several Bubblemasters took part. The event, sponsored by McDonnell-Douglas Scuba Divers of the St. Louis Scuba Diving Association, featured treasure hunts and a mystery dive.

The latter contest required divers to remain submerged in the river current at a location marked by a surface buoy while stringing together "pop-on beads" in a prescribed sequence of alternating colors. Efforts by the competing divers were timed to determine the winners, it was explained by Winters, who captured fourth place in the contest with a time of one minute and 47 seconds. Among those attending the McDonnell dive were Winters and his son, Jeff, Dr. Chris Geroff, Jack Hood and Steve Steinko and sons, Steve, Scott and Greg. The younger members of the group also enjoyed a cave exploration trip.

An Open Letter To the General Public

Subject: Complaints! Complaints! Complaints!

So many good people have COMPLAINED to the GRANITE CITY BOARD OF REALTORS, concerning their deals with other real estate operators that we felt compelled to give them a public answer.

Although we REALTORS sincerely sympathize with you, because we too are in the REAL ESTATE BUSINESS, our answer must be, "sorry, we can't help you, nobody can. You are strictly on your own." (NOTE: THE GRANITE CITY BOARD OF REALTORS have jurisdiction only over "REALTORS", members of the Local, State and National REAL ESTATE BOARDS OF AMERICA.) All REALTORS must subscribe to a strict code of PROFESSIONAL ETHICS similar to Doctors, Lawyers and other professional men of high community standing. Should you have a COMPLAINT against a REALTOR (and please remember this, just any real estate man is not a "REALTOR", and a "REALTOR" is not just any REAL ESTATE MAN) you can get justice, and immediately. The offender is brought before the Grievance Board for a hearing and he may be reprimanded, fined or completely expelled from the BOARD. (NOTE: Past records show one member heavily fined and two expelled for unethical practices against the general public. So we suggest you "CALL A REALTOR", a man of honor and know-how. A man with great respect for the PROFESSION OF REAL ESTATE. A full-time professional who really cares about you and the public trust, and a man who will quickly solve your COMPLAINT problems.

Sincerely yours,

THE GRANITE CITY BOARD OF REALTORS'
Members, Local, State and National

Selecting Kitchen Carpet
Although carpeted kitchens were practically unheard of a few years ago, their current popularity continues. Carpeting a kitchen may have value for its comfort underfoot, its noise-absorbing qualities, or for fashion reasons.

But before you carpet your kitchen, you should consider the properties of the carpet fiber, how the carpet is constructed and the care that is required. Remember that spots and spills are common in the kitchen.

Most carpets suggested for kitchens are made of olefin, acrylic or nylon fibers. Olefin fibers are more stain-resistant than are acrylic fibers. Olefin stains may be difficult to remove from nylon, but water-based stains, such as tea or coffee, will usually come off easily. However, hot coffee or other hot liquids spilled on carpet will not show a permanent stain.

Acrylic, nylon or olefin fibers will melt from the spark of a lighted cigarette. Hot bacon grease spilled on olefin can melt the fiber, leaving a damage area. However, a damaged area can be cut out and the carpet is repaired properly, the patch will not show.

For kitchen installations carpet made by tufting is recommended. It should have either a primary backing of polypropylene that doesn't mildew or rot, or a dense foam-back that keeps spilled liquids from seeping through to the floor. Liquids trapped under a carpet may develop mold, mildew, and attract household insects.

Carpet that has a low, dense pile tends to keep gritty soil on the surface. But dry cleaning may take longer than you expect. Other kitchen carpet is cemented to the floor. Foot-backed carpet in the shapes with adhesive backing is planned for easy installation.

Vacuuming carpet may seem easier to some homemakers than cleaning a resilient floor. However, a kitchen carpet will need to be shampooed regularly to keep it clean. Until immediate attention with the right methods to remove spots and spills will avoid permanent staining. Satisfaction from carpet will depend on how well it is cleaned and how well it looks after it is used.

Pamper Your Laundry
For laundry that includes durable press garments and synthetics, a little pampering goes a long way towards saving ironing time.

Here are some suggestions on how to get good results with easy-care fabrics and prevent laundry wrinkles:

1. Wash in small loads—big loads cause more garments to wrinkle and twist.
2. Wash easy-care fabrics often. Don't wait for heavily soiled to build up. Fresh soil and stains are easy to remove. The longer the delay in washing the more difficult it is to get out.
3. Pre-treat greasy soil with brand; Mary Yekel, 2701 E. 24th; Donald Zeugin, 2917 Myrtle.

FIRST CHILD IS BORN TO FORMER RESIDENTS

Word has been received here of the birth of their first child, Colleen, to a former resident, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Monaghan, Santa Ana, Calif., on Aug. 18. They are former local residents now making their home in California while Monaghan is serving with the Marine Corps.

Mrs. Monaghan is the former Janet Kramer, daughter of Mrs. Rudolph Kramer, 903 Kirkwood Homes, and the late Mr. Kramer.

Monaghan's family resides in Santa Ana, Calif. He will be returning from service next year at this time, and they plan to return to Granite City. While living here, the family was keeping in touch by receiving each issue of the Press-Record.

METHODIST YOUTH MEET
Junior High and Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowships met at Nameoki Methodist Church Sunday night. Recreation period preceded the meeting, with members engaging in a touch football game on the church grounds.

Enjoying watermelon after the game were Debbie Bunch, Joan Bess, Marilyn Bess, David Bunch, Sharon Bono, Ed Weston, David Long, Harry Weston, Stan Nancy, Bob Stages, Cindy Stages and the group's sponsors, Rev. and Mrs. William Frester, Mr. and Mrs. Fred and Bill Reimer.

The remainder of the evening was spent indoors, with Debbie Bunch presiding. The program was from the book "Bibliography Talks to Teenagers." This was the closing lesson for the summer. The book is the last chapter of the book, with a question-and-answer period. Plans for the coming year will be discussed and new committees appointed at the next meeting Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lipe, 1735 Ponton road, entertained at their weekend houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bess and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Davis, all of Granite City. Mrs. Lipe and Mrs. Spencer are cousins. Mrs. Mary Hardin, Mrs. Lipe's aunt, who makes her home in Arlington, also accompanied the group.

GUESTS FROM DALLAS
Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Koch and their son, Kit, of Dallas, Tex., were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Watkins and their son, Lance, 2348 O'Hare avenue, from Sunday through Tuesday. The families toured the St. Louis zoo and visited the Gateway Arch and other points of interest in this area.

ATTEND WEDDING

Eric is a nephew of Bess and Mrs. Robertson, and is the son of Nell Patterson of Chicago and the late Mr. Patterson.

Miss Colleen Robertson sang at her cousin's wedding, and her brother, Eric, served as an usher. The ceremony took place at St. Ann's Church in Barrington. The Bess and Robertson families returned home Sunday afternoon.

Holes Shot in Auto
Pauline Marks, 2150 Adams, reported a 14:40 p.m. Tuesday, that someone had shot three bullet holes in the front fender and broke a rear window of her 1967 Ford while it was parked in front of her home. The shots may have been fired from a .32 or .38-caliber pistol. A witness saw a man and a woman in an auto and heard the shots.
